Grade Groups

Plan ■ Teach ■ Collaborate

CALIFORNIA HISTORY-SOCIAL SCIENCE PROJECT

WHO: ■ K-12 History-Social Science Teachers

WHAT: ■ The California History-Social Science Project will host after-school workshops & discussion groups for history-social science teachers, organized by grade level.

- Educators can join one or more Grade Group: K-2, 3-4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 11, Ethnic Studies, Government, and Economics.
- Workshops will include presentations by university professors, experienced teacher leaders, and teacher educators.
- Educators will have the opportunity to read and discuss recent educational and disciplinary research, share and get feedback on lessons, and collaborate on the development of new curriculum.

WHEN: ■ Seven sessions held between September and December, 2020.

WHERE: ■ Online, through Zoom and other web platforms

WHY: ■ Grade Groups will provide a unique opportunity for local teachers to collaborate with educators and scholars across California to collectively address the multiple challenges teachers face.

- Educators will discuss how to: 1) engage students while teaching remotely; 2) integrate anti-racism into their courses; 3) assess student learning from a distance.
- Grade Groups will highlight an online inquiry model of instruction, designed to engage student interest and support student learning.

HOW: ■ Registration Fee: $185
